Swim School

This is the last week of swim school and what a beautiful week to be in the pool. Students are working really hard to improve and perfect their swimming. Friday students will be assessed before they go to the movies as part of the premiers reading challenge.

School Surveys

Thank you to those families who have completed their surveys online via the school website or in paper version. Students who return their surveys will receive an icy pole to say thank you. This survey is important in hearing what works, and ways we can improve systems and what we offer to families.

Newspapers for collection

We have a large supply of unwanted newspapers here at the school if anybody wants to take them please do so before next week before they become recycling.

Parent Interviews and Reports

Reports will go home this Friday. If you wish to see your class teacher please make an appointment.

Classes for 2017

Classes will go home today. Please note they are subject to change due to enrolments or unforeseen circumstances.

Presentation Night

The annual Presentation night will be held on Tuesday the 13th December at 5.30pm (for a 6pm start). The P&C will be cooking a BBQ and a menu will go next week.

Kind Regards,

Ellie Wiseman

K/1 Class News

Only 2 weeks to go!!! I cant believe the school year is nearly over. We have one more week of swimming lessons and it is great to see how everyone is improving. On Friday, after swimming we will be heading off to the movies as a congratulations treat for those that completed the Premier's Reading Challenge. All K/1 are involved in this so look out for the details in the note that goes home today. Could all library books and reading folders be returned this week please. For NEWS this week, share with us another of your favourite story books from home and tell us why it is your favourite.

Have a fantastic week everyone.

Kind Regards,

Ms Davies

2/3 Class News

Hi everyone,

I hope you all enjoyed the first weekend of summer! It was a sensational beach weekend. How lucky are we to be able to spend another week at the pool for our second week of swim school! It is so pleasing to see how much the children have grown in confidence from just that first week of swimming. Also, thank you to the parents who have been assisting at the pool as well. It is greatly appreciated. If your child has library books at home, can we please get them returned as soon as possible, and also home reading books and journals. In the classroom this week, we are revising concepts taught throughout the year and consolidating our knowledge, as well as ensuring our book work is completed. We are also rehearsing with the other classes for our presentation night performance. Reports will be sent home on Friday. Any questions, feel free to contact me via ClassDojo :)

Have a great week,

Miss Smith

4/5/6 Class News

Congratulations on a fantastic first week of swimming!

There will be NO homework this week. We will be completing our last Soundwaves unit and our Maths text pages in class.

Children are welcome to complete their "Home Reading" journals and send them in to receive their final reading awards.

Congratulations to those students who have kept these up to date and read more than 200 nights over the year.

Year 5 will be working on their 'Captains Speeches' at home and are welcome to have a practice run with me at school. I will give them a piece of cardboard to work on a poster. They will present their speeches at school on Monday 12th December at 9:20am, parents, friends and family are welcome to come along, the students and staff will then vote to decide who will be captains for 2017.

Year 6: Students will complete painting their legacy to the school this week. It looks fantastic, thanks Tash, Shelly and Bo for your help.

The Year 6 dinner is on Thursday 15th December at 6:00pm, we have booked Osteria Martini. Please let us know numbers attending for final confirmation.

Kind regards,

Kathy Hardaker
